

Android Wireless Connection – WC-Secure

Open the Settings app and go to Wi-Fi. Select WC-Secure from the available networks.

Enter your Westminster username in the identity field and your Westminster password (the username does not include the “@wclive.westminster.edu” portion). Leave all other portions as their auto filled defaults.

You should then see a “Connected” under WC-Secure indicating you are connected to the network.