Forums will be held at 11:40 a.m. in the Mueller Theater, McKelvey Campus Center

SEPTEMBER 6
Using Cultural Relativism to Understand Non-Amish Perceptions of Old Order Amish Culture
Kristin Park, Professor of Sociology

SEPTEMBER 13
A New Trick for Discovering Planets around Giant Stars
Thomas E. Oberst, Associate Professor of Physics

SEPTEMBER 20
“Cops and Robbers:” Understanding Properties of Networks by Analyzing Games
David E. Offner, Associate Professor of Mathematics

SEPTEMBER 27
You Say College, I Say Colegio: Creating International Opportunities for Westminster Students in the Dominican Republic
Sararose D. Lynch, Assistant Professor of Education, and Joel T. Postema, Associate Professor of Spanish

OCTOBER 4
Clickers in the Upper Level Classroom: Who Benefits?
Karen K. Resendes, Associate Professor of Biology

OCTOBER 18
Embodying an American Conscience: Dorothy Day’s Life, Work, and Honors
Angela M. Lahr, Associate Professor of History

NOVEMBER 1
Go to the Source: Leading an NEH Summer Seminar in Elizabeth Bishop’s Archives and Mapping New Directions in Scholarship and Teaching
Bethany F. Hicok, Professor of English

NOVEMBER 8
Social-Emotional Learning: A Foundation for Cyberbehavior
Mandy B. Medvin, Professor of Psychology

NOVEMBER 29
Roundtables

For more information contact Darlene McCoy at 724-946-7120 or mccoyda@westminster.edu.