Forums will be held at 11:40 a.m. in the Mueller Theater, McKelvey Campus Center

JANUARY 25
Cladistics for the Study of Religion
Bryan S. Rennie, Professor of Religion and Philosophy

FEBRUARY 1
Applied Media Ethics: Principles and Professional Practices
Kathy B. Richardson, President of the College

FEBRUARY 8
Solving Problems: Stage and Page
Andrew W. Ade, Associate Professor of English

FEBRUARY 15
Professional Identity Development and its Role in Growth, Development and Professional Engagement
Suzanne Semivan, Adjunct Faculty in Graduate School and Adult Studies

FEBRUARY 22
Milton and the Poetics of Freedom
Susanne Woods, Interim Vice President and Dean of Academic Affairs

MARCH 1
CAT Aps: Critical Thinking about Behavioral Research
Sandra K. Webster, Professor of Psychology

MARCH 8
Minimizing Loss: Explaining Russian Policy Choices during the Ukrainian Crisis
Michael E. Aleprete Jr., Associate Professor of Political Science

MARCH 29
Faculty Roundtables
TBA

APRIL 5
StRuctuRing interRdisciplinaRy collaboraRions through data science
Helen M. Boylan, Professor of Chemistry
Carolyn K. Cuff, Professor of Mathematics
Kerri Cornell Duerr, Assistant Professor of Biology

APRIL 19
The World of Mummies
Samuel A. Farmerie, Professor of Education Emeritus and Curator of Cultural Artifacts

MAY 3
We Can Call it I-THINK I Can: Back to the Elementary Classroom
Sararose D. Lynch, Assistant Professor of Education

For more information contact Darlene McCoy at 724-946-7120 or mccoyda@westminster.edu.